AMENDMENT NO. Before the short title at the end of the bill, add the following new section:

SEC. . (a) In addition to any other estimates it may prepare of any proposed change in Federal revenue law, a fiscal estimate shall be prepared by the Joint committee on Taxation of each such proposed change on the basis of assumptions that estimate the probable behavioral responses of personal and business taxpayers and other relevant entities to that proposed change and the dynamic macroeconomic feedback effects of that proposed change, and it shall include a statement identifying those assumptions.
The preceding sentence shall apply only to a proposed change that the Joint committee on Taxation determines, pursuant to a static fiscal estimate, has a fiscal impact in excess of $100,000,000 in any fiscal year.

(b) In addition to any other estimates it may prepare of any proposed change in Federal revenue or spending law, a fiscal estimate shall be prepared by the Congressional Budget Office of each such proposed change on the basis of assumptions that estimate the probable behavioral responses of personal and business taxpayers and other relevant
namic macroeconomic feedback effects of
statement identifying those assumptions.
The preceding sentence shall apply only to a proposed change that the Congressional Budget Office determines, pursuant to a static fiscal estimate, has a fiscal impact in excess of $100,000,000 in any fiscal year.

(c) Any report to Congress or the public made by the Joint Committee on Taxation or the Congressional Budget Office that contains an estimate made under this concurrent resolution of the effect that any legislation will have on revenues or spending shall rely upon Congressional Budget Office data and shall be accompanied by a written statement fully disclosing the economic, technical, and behavioral assumptions that were made in producing that estimate.

(d) In performing the tasks specified in subsections (a) and (b), the Joint Committee on Taxation and the Congressional Budget
